

Walter J. Gainey

May 31, 1928 - August 19, 2002

Walter James Gainey, Sr., son of the late James Thomas and Madgie Lee Gainey, was born on May 31, 1928 in Anson County, North Carolina. He was called to glory on August 19, 2002 after a lengthy illness. He attended public schools at Faison High School of Wadesboro, North Carolina. In 1950, Walter enlisted into the United States Army, where he served in World War II and the Korean War until his honorable discharge. He then returned to Wadesboro, North Carolina where he married the late Della Bee Legrand and out of this union six children were born. Walter moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1956. While living in Baltimore, he met Evorn Williams and three children were born. Later in 1992 he met and married Karen Gainey and two children were born out of this union. Walter was a loving and devoted father, a hard working man and was always a good provider. He was a friendly and kind man. Walter leaves to survive: a wife, Karen Gainey of Baltimore, Md.; eleven children, Brenda, Linda, Gail, Carol, Joyce of Winston-Salem, N.C., Walter Jr., Morna, Wanda, Yen, Shaneeka and Kimberly of Baltimore, Md.; one sister, Mary Gainey; three brothers, Vessel, Winfred and Gilbert Gainey; twelve grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; two sons-in-law, Raleigh Nickerson and Alton Roberts; a longtime caring and devoted friend, Evorn Williams; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Walter J. Gainey

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May God bless and keep you. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Missy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sorry for your loss may God watch over you and yours at this time of need.. Carol,Chris.and Quian....##imported-begin##chester,gardner,edmund,##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ threw the years we had our ups and downs our fess and fights, but threw it all you would always be there when i truly needed you. you will be missed and loved and never forgotten. Your Wife Karen##imported-begin##Karen Gainey##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM