

Walter J. Keene

May 12, 1925 - January 29, 2005

Walter J. Keene was born to the late Lewis E. and Lucinda Keene on May 12, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 29, 2005 at 6:40 a.m. after a long, debilitating illness. Walter went into the United States Army at an early age. He served with honor during World War II and the Korean War, where he was POW for 32+ months. He retired after twenty-three years of dedicated service to his country. He met Hattie R. Reed and they were married on February 27, 1965. During this forty year union, he remained a dedicated husband and loving father. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Hattie R. Keene; two daughters, Diane J. Wesson and Patricia L. Keene; son, Paul W. Reed; two granddaughters, Brittany Reed and Jordan Wesson; son-in-law, Lyndon Wesson; daughter-in-law, Kerry Welch; mother-in-law, Della Moore; three sisters-in-law, Mary L. Allgood of Ohio, Mildred Clark of North Carolina and Shirley Brown of Missouri; brother-in-law, Raymond Moore of New York; and a host of other family and friends. He was preceded in death by his brother and friend John L. Keene (Johnny).

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
