

Walter Ervin Jones

July 1, 1925 - September 20, 2024

On Saturday, September 21, 2024, GOD sent HIS heavenly angels to beckon HIS son, Walter E. Jones to begin his eternal life with HIM. He was born on July 1, 1925 through the union of the late Anne Holman and Walter Jones in St. George, SC. He was affectionately known as "Jones", "Jonesy", "Ervin", "Pop" and also "Granddad." He received his formal education in South Carolina's educational system.

Later in his adulthood he moved to Baltimore, MD. Walter served as a Merchant Seaman for 28 years during the Korean War and other global conflicts around the world. He was a loving and pivotal member in his family and his community. He loved to cook and was known for always making mashed potatoes and rice with every meal. Jones always welcomed his family to come to the house to see him.

Although Walter remained in Baltimore, MD until his death, his heart always yearned for his roots in South Carolina. He visited his family in South Carolina as much as he could. He was known for calling anyone who was willing to get on the road to head "down south" where he would stay for weeks.

Walter is preceded in death by his mother, father, brothers, sisters, sons-in-law, wife, Carrie Mae Jones, and a special friend, Regina. His memories will be cherished by his sisters, Margaret Taylor and Mattie Rivers; his twelve children, Regina, Shirley, Thomas (Josie), Michael (Manerva), Carolyn, Debbie, Curtis, Angel, Anna, Tony, Lewis (Trina), and James; an adopted son, Ralph Wright; his over 85 grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great great-grandchildren and a multitude of nieces and nephews, all who Walter loved and adored. He will also truly be missed by a host of other family and friends.
