

Walter Jones, Jr

August 6, 1934 - November 12, 2013

WALTER JONES JR., loving husband, father, brother, grandfather, and great-grandfather, age 79, was called home to be with the Lord on November 12, 2013.

He was the son of the late Walter Jones Sr. and Ollie Mae Jones of Rockwood, Tennessee. He attended Campbell High School in Rockwood, Tennessee. Succeeding graduation, he served in the U.S. Army. He held many jobs, but after dedicating his life to working in the Baltimore City Public School System, he retired as a Roofing Inspector.

On July 6, 1955, he married the late Cleo V. Jones. Out of this union, eight children were born:

Felice, Cynthia, Carlton, Terence, Falena, Cernoria, Kevin, and Saritha.

He was a devoted member of Pleasant Zion Baptist Church since November 2, 2003. He enjoyed playing Scrabble with his family on Saturdays. He also enjoyed watching football with his son on Sundays. His hobbies were traveling with his wife, watching and recording movies, collecting caps, and making home videos. In 1978, he published his first book of poems called

Happening Poems”.

Walter Jones was a very wise and intelligent man. He could share many stories about his past, present, and maybe even predict the future. He had a great sense of humor and awesome sense of style. Although his late wife was the foundation of the family, he was the lead. He will truly be missed.

Walter was preceded in death by: his father, Walter Jones Sr.; and mother Ollie Mae Jones; his sons, Terence Jones and Kevin Jones; his daughters, Felice Jones and Cernoria Buckner; one son-in-law, Michael Robinson; his brothers, Carl Jones, Jack Jones, and William Jones; and his sister, Geraldine Blount.

Walter leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Carlton Jones; three daughters, Cynthia Johnson (son-in-law Charles), Falena Robinson and Saritha Winstead (son-in-law James); fifteen grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren; two brothers, Philip Jones of Baltimore, MD and Larry Jones (wife Brenda) of Athens, TN; two sisters; Bessie Carney of Rockwood, TN and Rita Lawson (husband Winton) of Dayton, TN; cousins, Bobby, Carolyn and Suzette; sisters-in-law, Eunice Rankins of Columbus, OH, Shirley Oggs (husband James) of Spring City, TN; brothers-in-law, Booker T. Gillespie (wife Carol) of Nashville, TN, Alvas C. Gillespie (wife Pearl), Curtis L. Gillespie of Dallas, TX, William Gillespie (wife Kimberly) of Spring City, TN; and a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ To the family of Walter Jones Jr.:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Whether we face death, loss or pain, we can take great comfort in knowing that no sorrow is too deep that God cannot feel it with us. To the family stay strong and remember the good times that you were able to share.

May God bless you !

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible

“ I want to personally take this time to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your Dad. To my family, please be encouraged at this difficult time. I understand the place you're in right now. I wasn't afforded the pleasure of knowing or meeting uncle Walter but I do believe he's no longer suffering and is at peace.

Count the many years spent with your Dad as a genuine gift from our Heavenly Father and, although you will miss him terribly and feel a resounding pain in your heart, know that he is with our Lord in Paradise, reaping the rewards of a life that enriched each and every person with whom he met.

Continue to unite as the strong family I believe you are and help one another with this process. Everyday is different and it takes time. Don't rush it. Love on one another. I know you've endured MUCH this year, but this too, the hurt and tears, only came to pass.

I love you all and am praying for your strength.

God bless you all.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible gives hope that soon our Creator Jehovah God will end all suffering, pain, and death. And we have the hope of being reunited with our loved ones that have passed away. Rev 21:4, John 5:28-29.

“ Even though I did not know Walter personally, I really wanted to express my condolences to you and your family during this difficult time. God truly cares how we feel and He is eager to reunite those that have fallen asleep in death with their loved ones once again. His word the bible speaks of this time occurring in the very near future when death will be a thing of the past. I wanted to share with you three scriptures, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:3, 4. I truly hope that those bible verses bring you comfort during your time of sadness.
