“ To The Family: I am sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences. Also, the Bible offers a hope that no man can. John 5:28,29 says there will be a time when "all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". For now, we must do Jehovah God's will and wait on him until he fulfills his purpose and reunites us with our dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. Our family finds much comfort and solace from the loving promises in the Bible. One such heartwarming promise is Job 14:14,15- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Yes that promise of a resurrection is very comforting. May you gain much strength from it in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon H.##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. When someone touches our life in a special way, it becomes difficult without them. In the Bible it says something that happened to Jesus at 1 Corinthians 15:4- " and that he was buried, yes, that he has been raised up the third day according to the Sriptures." That hope is also held out to our loved ones too! I hope you find these words comforting.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
