

Walter Lee Lockett III

July 26, 1968 - October 2, 2010

Walter Lee Lockett III, affectionately known as “New”, the son of Walter Lee Lockett, Jr. and Patricia Ann Lockett-Allen was born on July 22, 1968 and a handsome son he was. He was educated in Baltimore City Public School for the Arts. He loved to sing and dance; that was his major. Throughout the years he attended Elderado Academy of Cosmetology and graduated on September 3, 1992. He loved doing Wet Sets and Finger Waves.

He turned his life to God. He attended New Pilgrim Baptist Church as a child and later joined New Refuge Church. He loved to sing on the choir and had robes of all different colors. He too had a beautiful singing voice for the Lord. And although he made alternative lifestyle choices, he loved his family and friends with all of his heart. He loved his music, church hymns and club music. He love and good time and that's how he got through life. He had his ups and downs, but he got back up again. Prior to his death, Walter recommitted his life fully to Christ.

Walter departed peacefully and leaves to mourn his life: his mother, Patricia Ann Lockett-Allen and his father, Walter Lee Lockett, Jr. Three sisters: Dreamia Levonia Smith, Tanyell La'VeL Lockett-Mack, Letitia Ann King; two brothers: Larry Patrick Lockett and James Edwards Pearson. A step-father, Eugene Edward Allen., Sr., and step-brother, Eugene Edward Allen, Jr., two step-sisters, Eugenia & Lisa Allen, two brother-in-laws, Andre A. Smith and Jerry Mack. Two sisters-in-law, Lauren Lockett & Antonia Pearson. One aunt, Arlene Hudson and uncle, Reginald Hudson, Sr. Three great aunts, Mary Henry, Estelle Nash & Shirley Lincoln and great uncle, Reverend Freddie Lincoln. He is survived by a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, a god-sister, Phil, two god-mothers, Patricia Robinson & JoAnn Chase. Two step-aunts, four step-uncles, a god-son, and a host of other relatives and friends. He too is survived by adopted sisters and brothers he took in from the communities; he loves us all. He had a happy, full life. He was wonderful! Love, hugs and kisses from Pat, Dee and Tang. Love, live and let live. He's in God's hands now and there's no one better.

“ Well today makes a year and it still seems like yesterday. Really wishing you were here but I know ur in a better place, sitting here listerning to Yes thinking about when I left it on ur voicemail. And you calln back screaming you loved that and I made ur day, remembering our talk that day has my heart smiling with so much joy. You always knew how to make me laugh even in the worstest times you being you. Rest In Peace precious heart

New; I'm going to miss you. One of your favorite sayings was "Dance for your Life". Well I hope you dance always in eternity, as you have danced in my heart. Too many memories, but the last will always be treasured. Our last dance together and your last words to me on 9/29/10. I love you. You are in a better place, because you knew and love the Lord. To be absent from this life means you are present with the Lord. Family for those that are in Christ we sleep and transition to a new life. I thank God for you New life. I love you eternally! One of your favorite cousins. Sheila D. Moore
