

Walter M. Bayne

November 18, 2003 - April 9, 2003

Walter Matthew Bayne Jr. (known to family and friends as Tony, Meatball, and Walt) was born on November 18, 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland to Vanessa D. McKnight and the late Walter Bayne Sr. He was their first born child. The Lord called him home to rest on April 9, 2003. Walter received his education through the Baltimore City Public School Systems. He attended Frances M. Woods High School, majoring in carpentry/welding. Growing up, Walter chose full Gospel Fellowship Church of Deliverance to worship Christ and regularly attended services. He was very musically inclined and, for a time, even played drums in a church. He loved the Lord and he loved old gospel music. Walter entered the world of work at age 19. His first job was as a Stock Clerk with Super Pride Grocery Store. His last job was with budget Car Rental (lasting 8 years), first as a Service Aide and moving up to a Sales Representative. Walter had strong family values. He lived a simple life and liked "clean" fun. He enjoyed his work and his car. His passion was wrestling, traveling, playing video games, and spending time with his family. He joked a lot and was always smiling. After Walter had gained a few pounds, his cousins affectionately referred to him as "Meatball" or "Pillsbury Dough Boy". Walter was very close to George Evans, who was not only his Godfather, but was a true father figure to him. He always appreciated the times he spent with him. Walter leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved mother, Vanessa D. McKnight; three sons, Walter, Davon, Tyler; two daughters, Catherine and Shavon; four stepchildren, Antonio, and Christopher, Niija, and Rayquiz; three sisters, Tyeisha Bayne, Tyelisha and Tyerisha Chiles; four brothers, Wendell Bennett, Francis and Darius Chiles, and Tavon Bayne; two godparents, George and Veronda Evans; and a host of other loving relatives and friends. W-Wonderful A-Amazing L-Loving T-Terrific E-Exciting R-Respectful

“ *To The Family... I knew Walter "Tony" as being a very sweet, kind-hearted person and he will truly be missed by everyone who knew and loved him. He was a "TRUE FRIEND!" My prayers and deepest sympathies go out to you during your time of sorrow. Please keep this thought in your mind as you walk through lifes path: "In the midst of family chaos, quality time is rare. Do your best; let GOD do the rest-Always Say A Prayer. GOD knows how stressful life is; He wants to ease your cares, He will respond-just take a minute to Always Say A Prayer."
