

Walter Marshall Cox

November 7, 1941 - June 19, 2004

Walter M. Cox, son of the late Marian and William Cox, was born on November 7, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on June 19, 2004. He received his education at Carver Vocational Technical High School in Baltimore. After many years of owning and operating Mel's Market, he became a full time employee of Harte Hanks Direct Marketing until his retirement on January 31, 2003. On August 31, 1984, he married Josebell Clark. Walter was a loving father and husband. He enjoyed walking, reading and cooking, but boy did he love to dance. He was very hospitable and a true friend, especially toward his wife who he waited on hand and foot. We will never forget that big smile and encouraging words he gave to many. He will truly be missed by his many friends and family who loved him so dearly. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Josebell Cox; two daughters, Marsha and Melissa Cox; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Youlanda Stevenson, Betsy Clark and Mrs. Brenda Suggs; one sister, Margaree Cox; two brothers, Donald and Elwood Cox. Three brothers, Raleigh Cox, Edward Booker and Tazwell Cox and one sister, Helen Davis, preceded him in death. He is also survived by three grandchildren, Chantel, Angel and Walter Cox II; one grandson, Brandon; two devoted friends, Samuel Jones and Stanley Suggs; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. I can truly say that I feel your pain, but so does God and Jesus. At Ps. 116:15 says "precious in the eyes of God is the death of his loyal ones." Also, take comfort in knowing that the scriptures say that there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. So Almighty God has a hope for your dear loved one. Therefore, in the near future you and I will be able to welcome back those that we have lost in death. But for right now, may you find comfort in precious memories. And continue to draw strength from each other and the scriptures.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
