

Walter James McCaster

April 20, 1933 - November 28, 2014

Walter James McCaster, 80 of Richmond, Virginia born April 20, 1933 to the late Birdie M. and Belton McCaster in Lynchburg, South Carolina. He peacefully joined the angels of heaven and entered eternal rest on November 28, 2014.

Walter received his schooling and attended Flemming High School in South Carolina. Later, his family relocated to Richmond, Virginia when he was a teenager. He later enrolled in Terpin Barber School where he received his license to pursue a career in barbering. Thus, becoming one of Church Hills most well-known barbers. Essentially, he knew everyone. He was formerly employed by Nabisco after many productive years of service.

His strong faith in Jesus Christ would lead him to Second Baptist Church. On June 6, 1997, he was united in holy matrimony to the love of his life, Florice Moon and together they raised a wonderful family. Walter was an exceptional husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend. A great provider for his family that made sure he provided the necessary tools of life, as it was written in the word.

Walter enjoyed playing baseball and would serve as the pitcher. In his younger years, he loved to cook, listen to music and would dance for hours. His greatest enjoyment was being on the river and taking his boat out for a day of fishing.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife of 17 years, Florice McCaster; caring daughter, Beverly Littleton (Adolph); beloved son, Walter J. McCaster, Jr. 12 grandchildren, Natasha, Jasmine, Crystal, Dee Dee, Courtney, Raven, Rayan, Travis, India, Lewis Jr., Amber and Eric; 9 great-grandchildren, Da`Qon, Dashawn, Brandie, Brandon, Tashawn, Elijah, Doir, Jaden and Parrish; sister, Olivia Fant; extended family, Darlene Brown, Cynthia Walls (Marlon) and Lewis Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends.
