

Walter R. Reid

May 17, 1951 - July 14, 2014

WALTER ROBERT REID, the beloved son of the late Wosley Reid and Mamie Reid of Mecklenburg County Virginia was born on May 17, 1951 in Baltimore County, Maryland. He was the youngest son of five children. He received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System where he received his high school diploma and other certificated in various trades.

Throughout his life, Walter was very ambitious. He achieved many other skills; some taught by his father. They included plumbing, auto mechanics, and professional painting. Walter also attended barber school. Walter was a “Jack of all trades.” Walter had an immense love for sports such as basketball, football, tennis, swimming, etc. He played baseball throughout high school. He also worked as an outside engineering machinist operator at the Bethlehem Steel Shipyard as well as the Maryland Dry Dock repairing ship propellers, boilers, etc. He worked at these businesses up until the time the plants were closed. Walter was a very sociable, analytical and intellectual person.

In later years, Walter worked again for the Baltimore City Public School System as a grounds specialist where he took an early retirement. His favorite quote around table talk was “I’m going to say this and shut up.”

Walter R. Reid received his baptism at the Family Bible Ministries World Wide on August 30, 2006. At that time Walter confessed the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior.

Walter leaves to cherish his memory: devoted high school and best friend, Deborah McKinley; one devoted daughter, Nakia Reid McKinley-Pope; son-in-law, Nolden Pope; step-daughter, Latonya McKinley; grandchildren, Kevin Smith, Justin Pope, Joshua Pope, Hope Lewis, Peace Lewis; cousin, Annette Craddock; sisters, (Betty Reid preceded him in death), Bertha (Tee) Porter, Anna Lee Bacon; brothers, Willie Reid, Wilbur Reid (preceded him in death), Joseph Woodton; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
