

Walter Smith

May 23, 1950 - January 2, 2004

Walter Smith Jr. (Bugsy) was born on May 21, 1950 to Walter and Marie Smith in Raleigh, North Carolina. He departed this life on January 2, 2004 at 1:30p.m. at the age of fifty-three, due to a lengthy illness. Bugsy was educated in the street life, although he attended and graduated from school #181 Charles Houston High School. He continued to pursue his education while spending the greater portion of his life incarcerated. Bugsy was truly smarter than college graduates were; his favorite subject was history, the rise and fall of countries and governments. Bugsy was basically quiet, watchful, street smart and a very good listener. Bugsy was a person who made no open promises, but was thorough and one who you could always count on regardless of what. Bugsy gave his life to God on August of 2003. His last words to his family were, shed no tears for me, because in Him I am okay. Walter Smith Jr. leaves to mourn: his parents, Marie and Walter Smith; two sisters, Lillie Nicholson and Patricia Smith; three brothers, Robert, Eugene, and Maverick; three nieces, Yolanda, Lisa and Crystal; three nephews, Broderick, Brett and Jamal; three great-nephews, Kaschon, Tuquan and Rayquan; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family, I would like to extend deep sympathy. May you find comfort in the hope expressed at Acts 24:15 - "...and I have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection..."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
