“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God "wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore" (Rev. 21:3-5). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from the wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear one. Psalm 90:10 says, "In themselves the days of our years are seventy ; and if because of special mightiness they are eighty years, "yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things, For it must quickly pass by and away we fly. This scripture describes the life span of us all. Mr Walter lived to be 71, and even though that's a long time to us; it is God's grand purpose for us to live forever. This is why he sent his beloved son, Jesus, because out of his great love for us he wanted to make it possible for us to recieve everlasting life. Jesus paid that ransom price to buy back what Adam lost for us; that is, everlasting life. 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive.". John 3:16 reminds us: "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." This is how God loves us, and he assures us that our loved ones will awaken from the sleep of death. John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
