“ To Pastor Brown and Family: Please know that the saints are praying your strength in the Lord. For the bible declares that "Blessed are they that die in the Lord".. We thank God for knowing where your dad is. When something is lost you don't know where it is, but because he knew the Lord we know where he is. "To be asbsent from the body is to be present with the Lord" Remember that "You never lose the ones you love, for within the hearts of those who care; their memories linger on." Be Blessed of the Lord!##imported-begin##Minister Melvin Rascoe##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Mr. Brown, I would like to extend my sympathy for your loss. At times like these, there is much to deal with. But there is also comfort that can be found through God's word the Bible. We find at John 11 that Jesus too experienced the loss of a loved one but the situation was not hopeless "he cried out with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come on out'...The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings". I hope you can find comfort in the promises God has made to us of bringing back our dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Ashley Waith##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Our family receives much comfort from the loving promises found in the Bible. One such promise is found at John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you receive much comfort, solace and strength from this divinely inspired promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
