“ *Doris,
"To God Be The Glory!" Remember the good times we had traveling with the Travelaires, going from city to city with our husbands to hear them sing. Oh! What a time we had. Also, traveling to Walter's home town and hearing the stories of his childhood, especially him being the school bus driver. We had wonderful times together. Weaver will truly be missed! God saw fit to bring his angel home. Love, Kermit and Clara Golden*

“ *To: The Walter Weaver family
" GOD" so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son. And whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." Love and Prayers from Bill Weaver and kids, Mark, William and Elizabeth*

William F. Weaver - April 04, 2013 at 05:25 PM

“ Blessings go out to Doris and Walter's family. Remember the good times and know that God knows best. Continue to be blessed, and know that your heavenly Father is by your side and that He cares for you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am sure you have many fine memories of your loved one that will bring you a measure of comfort during these trying times. Our loving heavenly Father is the "God of all comfort" and he can and will help you through this difficult time because "he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ To the Family and Friends , I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. At a time like this, the pain and sorrow that is felt cannot be explained. The hurt feels like it will never go away. We have all lost a loved one and a few comforting words mean a lot to us. I hope you can find comfort from these words found in God's word the Bible. At Rev.21:3,4, Jehovah assures us this: "God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death ill be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. What a wonderful hope we have and all we have to do is to follow what John 17:3 says. "This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true God, and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ". One day in the near future, we will see our loved ones again.

“ Dear Family and Friends,
It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

Sincerely,
A Bible Student

“ To the Family and Friends of Walter Weaver Jr,

Life has a way of taking us up and then down and up again and down again. This just happens to be one of those down moments but it is one where we can look on the up side. No doubt you all are missing your dear loved one and wish you could just spend at least one more day with him, tell him something you may have never got a chance to say or just being able to touch that person again. But just think, he is no longer suffering in this wicked and twisted system of things. Once a person dies he is no longer conscience of anything. So, he is peacefully "sleeping" at this time. I say sleeping because God's Word says, " and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous [Acts 24:15]." So, one day your loved one will be awakened anew and you'll be able to embrace him again. My heart goes out to you all at this time and your family is surely in my prayers.

“ Our prayers go out to the Weaver family, we would like to express our condolences at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this, a comforting thought is at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away"

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
