“ *The majestic pipe organ filled the heavens with the oh so sweet sounds of "How great Thou Art" heralding the arrival of our beloved Sir Waltz, his chorister's robe aglow. At the key boards with that sweetest of subtle smile, his fingers masterfully gliding across the keys, Carlisle Archibald played the welcoming song for his dear brother and best friend, Walter Allan. As the choir made room for their newest baritone they joyfully eased into the brothers' favourite anthem, "The Hallelujah Chorus". All is well, Sir Waltz has arrived in time to celebrate his oldest brother's 105th birthday...
Rest in eternal and everlasting peace dear uncle Walter as your quiet, gentle, caring and selfless spirit surrounds and comforts us in our grieving for you.
To aunty Verna and all of our cousins we share your sorrow in love, peace and quiet understanding.
On behalf of my sister Carolyn, my wife Maggie and all of our families,
Your nephew,
Sherwyn I. Welshman*

“ This is a time for gathering all the best of a good life and holding it in the heart forever.

Walter Allan Welshman. W.W. as I will call him, has lived a wonderful life, and fight a good fight to 100 years, 10 months and two days before he left us for his Heavenly Home, to continue his work with his Lord and Father Jesus Christ. WW I know that you will continue to sing the sweet songs in that beautiful place, where someday we will meet again. W.W you left sweet memories for us to think about, jokes and that smile. I will always remember whenever I called to speak with you and I say W.W, I can hear the laugh and the respond. "W.W" The last was the song "Our Father" Verna my comrade and friend, cherish the memories that he left you with. To the children and entire family my deepest sympathy to you all in this time of sorrow. Walter Allan Welshman, W.W, take your rest, we love, but Jesus love you best, Goodbye W.W. until we meet again.

“ Walter Welchman is someone I met over 50yrs ago. We became co-labourers in the P.N.C. ; he served as District Secretary and I as District Chairman.

Walter was a gentleman and had numerous Likes, Like on Facebook, from many members.

He always took the opportunity to share his knowledge with fellow Comrades.

I am thankful for having met him.

Walter, Rest in Peace.

“ IN the late 1940's throughout the 1960's Walter fondly called " Brods", was head of the household where my siblings and i lived; though not biologically related we were well cared for. Those days were considered impressionable and memorable. It was remarkable for such a young man to have taken on such responsibilities. He had a great personality, quiet, dignified, courteous and understood our needs for guidance. Apart from his professional and family life, he belonged to many organizations and garnered much respect. It is unlikely that he would be forgotten, because of the numerous lives he had touched. On behalf of my family and siblings, we are forever grateful, rest in peace. Clarence Tull.

“ To my dear loving husband of 48 years. You are the best thing that ever happened to me. RIP my love!

*“Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us

Sailing o’er life’s solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.”*
