

Walter William Womble

September 22, 1920 - December 27, 2002

Walter William Womble was the first born of nine children to the late Ernest Vernie Womble and Irene Ophelia Bynum Womble, on September 22, 1920 in Goldston, North Carolina. He departed this life on December 27, 2003. Walter was baptized and united with the Roberts Chapel Baptist Church in Goldston at a very early age and attended regularly until he moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1958. He worshipped at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Walter spent many years working at the Magnesium Chemical Company until he retired. Although he was retired, he enjoyed visiting the mall every day just to “hang out” with his buddies and share their daily stories. In later years, he enjoyed landscaping and gardening. Walter was a warm, friendly person who made friends wherever he went and will be fondly missed for his broad smile and cheerful spirit. He married the former Annie Mae Dark at an early age and from this union two children were born, Vernon William (now deceased) and Dorothy Marie. His wife of recent years, Marion preceded him in death. To cherish fond memories: a daughter, Dorothy Wyatt of Maple Shade, New Jersey; grandsons, Glenwood Vernard and Michael William of Fayetteville, North Carolina; two granddaughters, Pamela Griffin of Baltimore, Maryland and Valerie of Wilmington, North Carolina; three sisters, Yvonne Moore and Martha Hunt of Baltimore, Maryland, Costella Garland of Oakland, California; two brothers, Benjamin Franklin (Betty) and John Henry of Goldston, North Carolina (two brothers and one sister preceded him in death); many wonderful nieces, nephews, cousins, and many loyal and trusted friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Walter William Womble

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Walter William Womble

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM