

Wanda Y. Banks

January 14, 1960 - October 28, 2013

WANDA YVETTE BANKS was born in Richmond, Virginia on January 14, 1960 to Shirley T. Stewart and Al Holiday. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on October 28, 2013.

Wanda moved to Baltimore at an early age, where she received her education. She worked for a short period of time at the stadium and also at a restaurant.

Wanda loved spending time with family and friends. She especially enjoyed being around two of her grandsons, Keon and Deonté. She loved all of them but those two had a special place in her heart. Wanda made friends everywhere she went and was the life of any party or gathering. She loved listening to music, dancing, cooking, drinking her beer and talking trash to any and everyone.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Shirley Stewart; father, Al Holiday; five children, Latasha S. Chambers (Kevin), Shamica, Deonté Sr., Sierra and Daquawne (Keyshawne preceded her in death); ten grandchildren, Keon, Arianna, Tykei, Kyree, Deonté Jr., Makaiya, Kaden, Jawuan, Kamonie and Saquanwné; sister, Celest Curtis (James); godsister, Cindy Cook (Troy); three brothers, Basil, Tony and Jermy Holiday; two aunts, Ruth Wiley (Jesse), Arnetta Kidd (Arthur); best friend, Kim; and two good buddies, Matthew and Victor; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Our family would like express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I am so sorry to learn of the death of your dear loved one. Please accept my deepest condolences to the family of Wanda Banks. Death is such a difficult concept for us as humans to accept because it was never in God's plans for us. He actually hates death and describes it as an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) It is my hope that this knowledge will help you with your grief. One day, mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37:9-11, Revelation 21:3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24)

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is very difficult for family members. Thankfully the Bible offers comfort from GODS words in the Bible. GOD promises us that soon "death will be no more.. He also gives us the hope of seeing our deceased loved ones. You can read those words of comfort @ Revelation 21:3-4 and John 5:28,29.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
