

Wanda Jean Belton

August 26, 1960 - March 29, 2014

Wanda Jean Belton was born on August 26, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland to Herbert Belton and the late Geneva Bass. She graduated from Edmondson High School class of 1978 and took courses at Catonsville Community College. Wanda dated the late Clayton Cox and gave birth to their son TiJon Cox in 1981. She worked for several manufacturers including Panasonic; Games Workshop and most recently United States Gypsum. She excelled in male dominated workplaces and her highest capacity was as supervisor. Wanda was an avid fan of tennis, football and basketball. She loved family dinners, praise and worship music, shopping and playing board and video games. Her son TiJon was her best friend and they loved to spend time together.

At age 12, Wanda became a born-again believer in Jesus Christ and became more committed in her faith at age 35. She fellowshiped with and joined a few churches, her last being Manifestation of Christ Church under the leadership of Pastor Larry M. Summerville, Sr. and Co-Pastor Lady Elaine Summerville. The Pastor and church congregation welcomed her with open arms. Even as her health declined she was faithful and longed to fellowship with her brothers and sisters in Christ.

Left to cherish fond and treasured memories of Wanda; son TiJon Cox; father, Herbert Belton; five sisters, Valda Ford, Gwendolyn Turner, Norma Belton, Nichele Belton and Dawn Belton; three nieces, Brandy Turner, Domonique Washington, and Shadae Washington; one nephew, Alphonso Kibi Becote and wife Ronnida Becote; two great-nephew, William Garrett and Tyler Roberts; and one great-niece, Damia White.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Belton Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures our dear loved ones of a resurrection on a restored beautiful paradise earth. He even promises us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ My condolences to the family and friends.... Please know that while you loved one is not with you right now they are not forgotten by Jehovah God. May the bible bring you comfort in your time of grief. There will soon be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. (Acts 24:15) This is a promise that we all are eagerly awaiting fulfillment of as we have all lost someone to the enemy death , Soon the bible tell us that enemy will be brought to nothing. (1 Corinthians 15:26) To find more comfort from the scriptures, please visit jw.org or speak personally to one of Jehovah's Witnesses in your neighborhood.
