

Wanda Green

July 22, 1965 - April 22, 2017

Wanda Greene, was born on July 22, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Earl Majors and Edith McIntyre.. She departed this life on April 22, 2017 after a brief illness. She was the youngest of six children with one brother, Reginald Greene, who preceded her in death.

She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She attended Baltimore City Community College and Morgan State College where she received her degree in social work. She was employed with the Department of Social Service and later at Turning Point Clinic. She was converted and baptized at Christ Temple Church before joining New Life Evangelical Church.

Wanda made numerous friends wherever she went and will be truly missed by all those who knew her. She will always be remembered for the way she enjoyed life, her acts of kindness, charity and compassion for others. She had a wonderful sense of humor and always kept you laughing. Wanda was a true friend and could be counted on to have your back if you needed her. She enjoyed traveling and spending time with family in North Carolina. She was a devoted mother and her children were the highlight of her life. To know her was to love her.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Quinton Fitzgerald; one daughter, Chajuana Jackson; four brothers, William, Daryl, Marvin and John Greene; nieces, nephews, a special friend Kenneth Lewis, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ • Words fall short of expressing my sorrow for your loss

Revelation: 21:4

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,+ and death will be no more,+ neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.+ The former things have passed away.”
