Wanda Janice Hill, daughter of the late Thomas and Rose Pearson was born on October 29, 1950. She departed this life on August 11, 2005. "Sue" as she was affectionately called, received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She took on various jobs throughout the city. Jackie, "Sue", and Betty were a trio of sisters who spent much of their time together. Sue always spent quality time with her family. Her one daughter, "Mi-Mi," and her nieces were a special part of her life. All who knew her will miss Sue. She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Towanda; one son, Octavion; two sisters, Jacqueline and Beverly; three nephews, Eugene, Sean and Eric; four uncles, Ervin (Horse), Talmage (Cokey), Lafayette (Lieley), and William (Danny Boy); three aunts, Alethea (Mae), Rose, and Beverly; a very close friend Leonard Smith; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The Bible rightly calls death our "enemy". That same verse assures us that death will "be brought to nothing." (First Corinthians 15:26) What hope is there for our dead loved ones? Acts 24:15 says- "there is going to be a resurrection." May these divinely inspired promises give you much comfort and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am very sorry to hear about your loss but please be assured that Almighty God looks down and sees your plight. He promises you that in the very near future he is going to swallow up death forever and raise the dead to life again and we will all live in a paradise earth free from all the problems of this old dying system. Please read Isaiah 25:8,9; John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4 to find these promises of or God and Father.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
