

Wanda N. Cook

October 12, 1971 - June 4, 2007

WANDA NICOLE COOK was born on October 12, 1971, in Baltimore, Maryland to Maxine and Selzanick Cook. She departed this life on June 4, 2007 to be with her heavenly Father. Wanda received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At an early age Wanda had a desire to do hair, so she enrolled in Jewels Beauty School. Wanda was a loving and outgoing person. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Wanda leaves to cherish her memory: parents, Maxine and Selzanick Cook; stepfather, Winford Cherry; three sisters, Shantai Luellen, Latasha Cherry and Latoya Cherry; great-grandmother, Augusta Parker; two aunts, Mildred Childress and Josephine Shaw; two uncles, Wallace and Harry Dennis; brother-in-law, Wade Harris; four nieces and nephews, Tarche, Breona, James and Ryan; five godchildren, Derrick, Davon, Diamond, Christopher and Alaja; a host of loving and caring cousins, family and friends.

“ Hello ! Cook's ! I send my deep sympathy to you all in your lost of Wanda recently. Death breaks the family circle. Keeping hair looking great is a good thing, and Wanda loved doing that. Today there is so much illness going on that many wonder is that God's purpose for mankind. The bible helps us to know the answer at Gen.1:28 the frist man and woman were made to live forever with every thing they needed.They would be happy if they Obey their creator, Rom.5:12 tell us what happen, please read .We can look forward to the time whom no one will ever die again, great news to hear. May the happy times shared with Wanda stay close to you all hearts. Sincerely, Lillian.###imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
