

Wanda Pringle

June 30, 1956 - April 26, 2002

On Friday afternoon, April 26, 2002, Wanda Pringle was called home to her Heavenly Father, after a lengthy illness. Wanda spent the last two years of her life learning that there is no pain that Jesus can't heal. She loved her husband and children, family and friends with all her heart and soul. Born on June 30, 1956, in Baltimore, Maryland, Wanda was the fourth of five children of the late Reese Leroy and Elsie Isabelle Singleton. Wanda accepted Jesus Christ at an early age, was baptized and joined First Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church. She received her formal education in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Edmondson High School. She was known to many as a fun, loving and kind person; always ready to do whatever she could for anyone. She loved to care for children and entertain friends. Cooking was one of Wanda's favorite activities. Wanda's life was full of service to others. She served many of her friends as an employee of the Black Image. She worked at several department stores such as Ames, Circuit City, Caldor and Montgomery Ward. Later, she became a Child Care Provider for the children of her family and neighborhood friends. Left to cherish her memory: her husband, Delvin Thomas Pringle, Sr.; two sons, Delvin Thomas Pringle Jr. and Devon Malachi Pringle; one daughter, Shawtrell Aquilla Pringle; one sister, Marlene Burgess of Sumter, South Carolina; two brothers, Rondell Leroy Singleton and Timothy Singleton; five sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews; one aunt, Rosa Ophelia Nathaniel of Sumter, South Carolina; one godson, Kenny Anthony; three devoted friends, Denise, Erica and Becky; one devoted Caretaker, Corey Jones; a host of “adopted’ sons and daughters around the neighborhood and many other relatives and friends.
