Obituary for Wanda Reynolds

Born March 27, 1953 – July 2, 2025

Wanda Reynolds was born on March 27, 1953, in Richmond, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her parents, Bertha Elizabeth and James Washington, as well as her loving aunt, Alma Robinson, and treasured sister, Nancy Whitaker.

She was educated at Bowler Elementary, Armstrong High School, and the Richmond Adult Learning Center. Wanda began her career at Philip Morris in 1975, working as a Civil Engineer until her retirement in 2005. She was known for her dedication, strong work ethic, and strength.

Wanda was a woman with a generous spirit and deep compassion for others. She helped and supported others selflessly, always willing to give without expecting anything in return. She opened her home to many, offering warmth and support without hesitation or expectation.

She was a faithful member of New Covenant Apostolic Church, where she was loved by many and served diligently as an Executive on the Finance Team.

Wanda was the loving mother of Latichia Logan and mother-in-law to Maurice Terrell Logan Sr. She was a proud grandmother to Maurice “Ty” Terrell Logan Jr. and Maureisha Terreale Logan, and an adoring great-grandmother to Messiah Kemaury Logan and Master Tyvon Logan.

She was one of seven siblings: Floyd Robinson, Joseph Robinson, Betty Robinson, Joyce Ann Henry, and bonus sister Arlene “Meicey” Harris. She shared an especially close bond with her sister, Louise Allen — the two never missed a day of talking.

Wanda was surrounded by a close circle of family and friends who deeply loved her. She also had many nieces who each held a special place in her heart: Barbara Brooks, Dorcas “Wee-Wee” Britt, Kimberly “Kim” Edding, Sherri Robinson, Joanna Fordham, Bettie Jo Carmon, Lavada Carmon, Gwendolyn “Gweny” Butler, and Iva Gilchrist. Wanda lovingly embraced her great-niece, Tivani Christian, whom she adopted as her daughter. Wanda also had a host of nephews: Floyd Robinson, Joseph “Buster” Robinson Jr., Bishop Gilbert Robinson, Joseph Carmon Jr., Roosevelt Allen Jr., and Nadir “Tonio” Lumumba. She shared a deep and special bond with her nephew, Lavert “Mane Mane” Morris, who was like a son to her.

She was blessed with two cherished godsons, Michael Perkins, Esq. and Seaver Woolfolk, goddaughter Mila Perkins and a special bond with Shaniqua “Shay” Harris. Wanda was also preceded in death by her sweet and devoted dog, Asia.

Her life was a beautiful reflection of love and kindness — and her memory will live on in all those who were privileged to know and love her.

“ In Loving Memory of My Auntie Wanda

Today, my heart is heavy as I reflect on the beautiful life of my dear Auntie. She was more than just family — she was a source of love, wisdom, laughter, and unwavering support. Her presence lit up every room, and her kindness touched the lives of so many.

To my dear cousin and your beautiful family — I know this loss is deep, and the days ahead may feel heavy. But I want to encourage you to hold tight to her love, her legacy, and one another. Lean into your memories, your faith, and the strength that Auntie poured into all of you. She lives on in every story you tell, every act of love you show, and every smile she helped shape. May peace find you in time, and may you feel surrounded by love always.

*Rest peacefully, Auntie. Your light continues to shine through us.
Love you, Iva Dance*
