

Wanda T. Smith

July 31, 1958 - September 1, 2014

WANDA THERESA SMITH, daughter of the late Frankie and Lawrence Smith, was born on July 31, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed her earthly home on September 1, 2014.

Wanda received her education in the Baltimore City School System. She received training and briefly worked as a nursing assistant; however, she spent the majority of her life caring for her herself, her twin brother, and her children.

Wanda had a unique personality. She was loving and caring but she was known to be a fiesty little lady. She liked to laugh, have fun and listen to music ranging from classic soul to hip-hop.

To know her was to love her and she will be deeply missed by all who had the pleasure of meeting her.

Wanda was preceded in death by her beloved twin brother, Wayne Lawrence Smith.

She leaves to mourn: her lifelong companion, Melvin Pinkney; one son, Dwayne Johnson; three daughters, Sarita, Erica and Amber Smith; one sister, Lyndia Smith; two nieces, Karen Cunningham and Cheryl Williams; fifteen grandchildren, Teja, Samara, Siara, Aereon, Amaziah and Melvin Smith, Dwayne Johnson, Roslyn and Steve Diggs, Avone and Zaire Fouch, Kevin Evans, S'Rayah Kearney, Akaya Daniel and Daylen Merryweather.

“ I truly sorry for your lost and you have my deepest sympathy for Wanda and her early departure from this world. May you have comfort knowing that God promises a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous in John 5:28 we look forward to seeing Wanda again one day when that scripture is fulfilled. www.jw.org

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
