“ Our thoughts and prayers extend to all of you who are faced with the displeasure of losing a loved one to our worst enemy called Death, in these critical situations it's normal to feel helpless not knowing where to turn. However, our heavenly creator has assured us in HEB: 6/11 that it is impossible for him to ever forget us, and that all of those that are worthy will soon have an opportunity and privilege of living on a paradise earth. according to PSALMS:37/29. Meanwhile we can give our thanks to the March funeral directors: for their perfectional assistance and their heartfelt concern toward the unfortunate friends and families. THANKS!

“ My deepest condolences to the family.
I didn't know Wanda for many years, but the time we shared was truly meaningful. She had a gentle spirit and a way of comforting others, even while facing her own battles. We prayed together, encouraged each other, and she always lifted my heart with her faith and kindness.

When I hadn't heard from her, I felt something in my spirit, and seeing her picture today broke me. But it also reminded me of how powerful her light truly was. Wanda touched my life in such a short time, and I will forever be grateful for her friendship.

Wanda, I love you. You put up a good fight, job well done. Rest easy. 💔😭

Psalm 34:18, “The Lord is close to the brokenhearted.”

With love,
Niecey
