

Wanda E. Tomlin

January 17, 1965 - February 8, 2016

Wanda Elisha Tomlin, daughter of the late Henry Spencer and Ella Louise Tomlin-Spencer was born on January 17, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. Suddenly on February 8, 2016, she departed life at Sinai Hospital. She was the youngest of 5 children. Her brother, Michael preceded her in death.

Wanda received her formal education from the Baltimore City School System, graduating from Western High School in 1983. Having a love for children, Wanda worked as a teacher's aid in various public schools. She possessed a natural talent as a hairstylist and was generous in sharing her gift with family and friends. Wanda enjoyed shopping trips and loved to travel to the Englishtown Outlet in New Jersey. She had a love for dancing and was a member of a local dance troop. She also had a great sense of humor, a hearty laugh and a beautiful smile.

Wanda loved her family and especially enjoyed family gatherings. She was a loving mother and the birth of her son, Errick caused a significant transformation in her life. Wanda met the love of her life, Howard " Butch " Reese more than twenty years ago. They loved each other unconditionally and planned to marry in April 2016.

Following a chronic health event, Wanda received care at Genesis Long Green Nursing Rehabilitation Center. She worked hastily to restore her health and returned home. She possessed a strong will and looked forward to accomplishing her hopes and dreams.

She leaves to cherish her memory: Her loving son, Errick D. Jones, fiancé, Howard Reese, sisters, Joyce Nance-Frierson and Janet Nance-Richardson, brother, Kenneth Tomlin, nephews, Michael D. Fernandez and John Richardson IV, brother-in-law, Victor Frierson, and a host of other relatives and friends.
