

Mr. Wardell Herbert Beale

May 17, 1939 - April 25, 2024

Wardell Herbert Beale was born May 17, 1939, unto Geneva Green in Lancaster, Virginia. He departed this life after a lengthy illness. He attended Lancaster Virginia County Schools.

Wardell (slim), which he was affectionately called by those who loved and knew him, courted Victoria from 1991 to April 11, 2013, when they become one. Slim enjoyed watching his favorite football team-(Steeler's) and hanging out with the fellas playing and drinking (while the fellas told lies as he would say). He especially loved and made it his life mission to ensure he took very good care of the love of his life, his wife Vickey.

Slim worked for Flanagan Construction Company where he worked for many years until he retired.

Wardell was preceded in death by his mother Geneva. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Victoria, daughter Kim (Rodney), two stepsons Richard (Michelle), David, nineteen grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren, friends and family.
