

Wardell Jackson

April 5, 1930 - September 21, 2001

Wardell Jackson, Sr., son of the late John and Gertrude (Hurt) Jackson, was born on April 5, 1930. He departed this life on September 21, 2001. He received his education in Prince Edward County, Virginia. He later served in the U.S. Army. Wardell moved to Baltimore, Maryland and was employed by Bethlehem Steel Corporation for forty years. Upon retirement, he was able to enjoy watching his grandson, Wardell Jackson, III, play football and baseball. He was an avid sports fan and enjoyed watching the games with his Pepsi and a plate of food. He also enjoyed traveling, taking care of his cars and being an active member of the 42nd and 56th Tin Mill Retirees' Club. In 1952, he married the former Mamie Mitchell, and out of this union one child was born, Wardell Jackson, Jr. Wardell Sr., received the Lord Jesus Christ as his Savior at an early age at the Mt. Zion Second Baptist Church in Prince Edward County, Va. He joined Wayland Baptist Church under the pastorship of Rev. W.W. Payne after the church relocated to Garrison Boulevard. He enjoyed the early morning service and was a regular worshipper. Wardell made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mamie Jackson; son, Wardell Jackson, Jr., grandson, Wardell Jackson, III; eight brothers, Clifford, John, Keston, Plenty, Clarence, James, Joe and Leon; four sisters, Eunice, Geraldine, Estelle and Bernice; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
