

Warnick S. Graves

February 21, 1949 - February 13, 2004

Warnick Sherman Graves II, son of Roberta and Warnick Graves, Sr., was born on February 21, 1949 and was the brother of the late Juanita Graves-Dixon. He departed life Friday, February 13, 2004. Warnick known to many as “Uncle Brother” was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Brother served in the United States Army. He was later employed as a truck driver, and mastered many trades. Brother suffered for many years with a serious heart condition. “Uncle Brother” was loved by many and had an enlightening sense of humor. Brother was known for his friendly greeting “Hey Dere.” He had a special bond with his parents. He was a devoted father and husband. He loved all his nieces and nephews just as much as they loved him. Everyone who knew him was touched by his bubbling personality. Brother received his spiritual fulfillment as a Jehovah’s Witness. He leaves to treasure his memory: mother, Roberta Graves; father, Warnick Graves, Sr.; his wife, Linda; two children, Tyra Garrison and Warnick Graves III, B.K.A. “B”, five grandchildren, Juanzo, Juanisha, Thomas, Tynequa, and Emonie; one great-grandchild, Nakiyah Nesmith; two sisters, Vicki Roles and Sheila Graves; two brothers, Robert and George Graves; five sisters-in-laws, one brother-in-law; one stepson, Dennis King; one son-in-law, Melvin Garrison; six aunts, four uncles, eight nieces, five nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear family of Brother Graves, I din't know him personally, but he was my spiritual bother; and even though I"M just finding out now 3 years later, I would still like to leave a comforting message with the family. I try to look at death as a journey our loved ones go on, because I know that someday they will return according to Jehovah's promise of a ressurection. This is the same hope Warnick had as one of jehovah's servants, and also many other of bible times had this same hope. That is why the Apostle Paul wrote at Acts 24,15: "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Our God Jehovah cannot lie, so we can rest assured that all of his promises, including the promise of the ressurection will come true. Heb 6,18, and Isaiah 55:10,11. I lost my son 10 years ago, so I can truly identify with the pain of Warnick"s parents. May Jehovah keep you in his arms of loving care, and give you the strength to carry on; until the glorious day arrives when we both see our sons in Jehovah's paradise. Take care family.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
