“ To Mrs. Mary, Wilbert and Wallace, I extend my heartfelt sympathy to you and your entire family on the loss of your son and brother. My prayers and thoughts are with you. Hold on to your faith, for I know that God will not leave you nor forsake you in your hour of need. I pray that God will wrap his loving arms around you until you can recall the good memories with Warren and be comforted by them.

“ To the Evans family I extend my heartfelt condolences. Even though I don't know you all personally, I too have lost loved ones, and I know how deeply painful it is. My heart goes out to you all, and I would like to share some words of comfort with you from the bible. One day soon there will be no more sickness or death; no more sorrow or pain, because these former things will pass away according to Rev 21:3-5. Then God will wipe out every tear from our eyes. One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection of life, according to John 5:28,29. We can put our trust and faith in Jehovah's promises, because he is a God of truth who always fulfills his word. Heb 6:18, and Isaiah 46:10. He established his promises upon his loyal Son, Christ Jesus who is the perfecter of our faith, and the faithful witness. Heb 12:2, and Rev 1:5. Jesus brought many back to life while he was here on earth, and Jehovah has given authority to his Son to resurrect many more in the future. John 5:26,27. May you find comfort in God's word, the bible, which promises a very happy future for mankind if we keep the faith.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to send condolences. Losing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life for you all. Our heavenly father cares for all you and is there to give comfort and hope, 2 Cor 1:3, Romans 15:4. Imagine the days coming when no one will ever die as the bible says at Isa.25:8. I am looking forward in the near future. May all the happy times spent with Warren keep supporting you all in the journey of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
