“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am sure you have many fine memories of your love one that will bring you a measure of comfort during these trying times. Our loving heavenly Father is the "God of all comfort" and he can and will help you through this difficult period because "he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. Death is certainly a cruel enemy that stabs at our hearts like no other event we experience in life. Truly, death was never God's purpose. One day we have the wonderful opportunity to see our loved ones again in the promised resurrection of the dead, because God promises that they will hear the voice of his Son, Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. May that promise leave you with comfort, and help you to cope with your loss.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. Jehovah God promises to do away with all of our suffering. In Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I encourage you and your family to read this scripture in your own copy of the bible. I hope this brings comfort in your time of need.

“ Dear family, I am so sorry about your loss. I know this is a difficult time for you. I wanted to give you some comfort from the Bible. A lot of people want to know if there is any hope for their dead loved ones. The Bible teaches us that most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised us in John 5:28,29
