

Warren G. Lincoln

April 25, 1923 - May 3, 2009

Warren Gamaliel Lincoln, the youngest of seven sons, was born to Rufus and Francis Lincoln in Whitaker, West Virginia. God called him home on May 3, 2009. He received his education in West Virginia at Dunbar High School and graduated from West Virginia College. Upon completion of his education he served his country in the United States Navy. He then tried a career in welding, but later found his calling at Maryland Jockey Club where he was employed for fifty years. Warren made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to mourn; his wife of forty-three years, Vergie, seven children, (sons) Ricky, Terry, Warren Jr. and Shawn, (daughters) Sheila, Susan and Simone (who preceded him in death); son-in-law, Chris, and daughter-in-law, Patricia, nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to you for the loss of Mr. Lincoln. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that resurrection hope and may you draw closer to the ones responsible for it: Jehovah God and his only begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the scriptures at John 11:38-44. Here Jesus demonstrated the resurrection hope with his friend Lazarus. May these verses strengthen and encourage you at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
