

Warren H. Finch

December 21, 1947 - December 29, 2003

The book of life was opened for Warren H. Finch, Jr., on December 21, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland to Nancy and Warren Finch, Sr. God dispatched His angels on December 29, 2003 to call from his labor to reward. Everyone who loved and knew him affectionately called him "Tollie." Tollie received his education at Polytechnic High School (Old Poly) in Baltimore. He served in the military during the Vietnam War (1967-1970). Following that, he became a dedicated employee of thirty-eight years at Farmers Insurance company, where he has worked until his passing. He was joined in holy matrimony on October 19, 1971 to the former JoAnn Thomas, with one daughter of her own, Jewell y. Dennis (who preceded him in death) and one from their union, Monique N. Finch. Tollie loved to make people laugh and have a good time, and always greeted you with love. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He will always be remembered as caring, strong, intelligent and heart-warming. He leaves to cherish his life; his loving, devoted wife, JoAnn; his daughter, Monique; his mother and father, Nancy and Warren Sr.; one brother, Michael Finch; one sister, Judy Finch; father-in-law, Joseph Thomas; two sisters-in-law, Jean Patterson and Barbara Robinson; two brothers-in-law, a host of aunts, nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor our cry or pain anymore. He says death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he says, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family and Friends: My sister and I would like to express our sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. We know he will be mourned and missed by all who loved him. It is at times like these that we seek and need comfort. The Bible is comforting in this regard. At John 5: 28 & 29 a resurrection is promised for all those who have fallen asleep in death. Yes, Almighty God, through his Son Jesus Christ will bring back our loved ones into a beautiful paradise. {Luke 23: 43}. I pray that you rely on God's many promises recorded in the Bible, for strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

He taught me a lot and was always one of my best co-workers, but more than that, Warren was one of the best people I have ever met in my 50 years of living, truly a good person, he will be missed.##imported-begin##LloydMc##imported-end##
