

Warren Montez Lewis

June 2, 1975 - March 9, 2014

Only God knew that on Sunday, March 9, 2014, He would call Warren home to forever rest in peace with Him, where the worries of this world would be no more.

Warren was born to Alfreda Adkins and Richard A. Taylor on June 2, 1975 in Richmond, Virginia. He was later reared by Alfreda Adkins Lewis and the late Roger Lorenzo Lewis. He was preceded in death by his son, Jayme S. Street and many other family members.

Warren accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Rising Mt. Zion Baptist Church in New Kent, Virginia. Warren truly loved life and was a person full of joy. He loved to keep you laughing whenever in his presence. His warm smile was embraced by all. He “cherished” family more than anything else. His greatest treasures in life were his wife and children. He had great love for them. He also loved sports and played basketball and football while attending New Kent High School, New Kent, Virginia, where he graduated in 1994. Warren had much pride and patience in accomplishing his goal as a professional Barber.

Warren leaves to cherish his memories, his devoted wife, Monick, three daughters; LaSondra Jones, Shenale and Shemeka McCoy; three sons; Donnell Allen, DaShawn Jones and Norris Stanley, Jr.; one granddaughter, Zakiyah Gary; his loving mother, Alfreda A. Lewis; mother-in-law, Felicia McCoy; sister, Rochelle Lewis; two sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; two loving nephews, Reginald Jackson and Amari Lewis and a host of aunts, uncles, relatives and friends.

“ Another day that I am thinking of you more than ever and remembering the smile, the kiss on the forehead and the greeting you always gave me. My heart is heavy not only for the loss of you but for so many family members. Rest on my Son until we meet again.

“ My Son, oh how I miss you. I never would have imagined you being out of my life permanently. It was 10 years ago on March 9th that God called your name, and the pain of that Sunday morning will never ever go away. The void in my life is unexplainable. You were my first born and the bond we had was very special. I am forever calling your nephew by your name, and he says I am Reginald Granny or just shakes his head. To hear you call my name or see you sitting on the porch would be great, but I know that is never going to happen again. So, whenever I see a yellow butterfly land on the sidewalk at home, I just say hi Warren and I love you still. I love and miss you so very much. Mom (Red as you would call me).

“ The smile, the kisses on the forehead, the laughs and the frowns. Eight years later and the tears are still flowing like a river. Will they ever stop? Now the three of you are together and I am left to carry on. All I can say is give me strength Lord day by day. To have you here I yearn for so much but God needed you more than I. Forever, forever in my thoughts daily. Love, MOM

“ It has been seven years and Mom still does not understand it. I just have to keep trusting that God knew best when he called you home. I guess he needed you more even though I need you now more than ever. I love you and miss you so much.

“ Oh how I miss your forehead kisses and your smile. I think of you often and cry even more to have your presence with me. Well, another one is joining the heavenly laughter with you, Jayme and Roger. Here comes Chris with that beautiful smile and bright eyes. I need to you all to hang tight and embrace him with all of the others that have gone on before. I miss you my son so much. My heart aches for you but God saw a better need for you. I will forever love you my first born. Love Mom

“ I think of the little league games and all the fun we had. Now, I look in the sky and look for that special star. For the past three days, there have been 3 of them, one brighter than the other two. So I say, thank you Roger, Warren and Jayme for watching over me and letter me know that you guys are okay with Lord. Mom misses you all so much.

“ My Baby Boy (Warren):

It has been a month and the hurt has not gotten any better since God called you home. I only wish we could have had more time to laugh, cry and have more fun together. What I wanted was not what God wanted and I will struggle daily to accept the fact that to see you will be no more. How does life go on for me without you, Jayme and your Father (Roger)? I only wish I had the chance to say "I Love You" one more time and see your smile when I would say something to make you blush. My son rest in peace with the Almighty knowing that my heart has a hole and ache that will only heal with time and the peace of God. Missing you so much. Lil' Reggie misses you all the more as well. Love Always, Your Mom and Nephew

“ To the Ware family and friends, sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. At a painful time like this, comfort from God's word may ease the pain. Let me share with you 1Corinthians 15:26..."And the last enemy death, is to be brought to nothing." What a wonderful promise from Jehovah! To find more of his promises, read your Bible daily and take in his accurate knowledge(John 17:3). He is the only true God. My condolences.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Lewis Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He promises our dear loved ones a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible

“ 100% my brother,...just birthed by different mothers. I can honestly say that Warren(Yella) & I felt as though we were the brother that each of us never biologically had. It has been nearly a week since this tragic accident occurred. I still fail to accept, or digest the fact that my brother is gone. I do feel as though he resides in a much better place, but selfishly I don't want to let him go. I struggle daily to even fathom the idea that I will never hear,see, greet,or share a simple laugh with him on this earth. He has taught me alot through the years. I especially hold on to the little tricks he's shown me as a barber. I love my brother. I know my brother loved me! Until we meet again, I will keep your memory alive! I love you "big bruh"..

“ *I am deeply saddened to learn of the loss of your dear Warren. Please take comfort in knowing that Our Heavenly Father has already made provision to awaken him from sleep, in the very near future (Mark 5:38-43). This is no mere fantasy. There are eight persons whose deaths and Resurrections were witnessed by many, then recorded in Gods' Word The Bible, for a reason. These are a fore gleam of the Earth-wide Resurrection of those now dead. Jesus confirmed this hope when He said in The Book of John 5:28-29, in part, "Do not be amazed at this, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out...". Warren will awaken to a cleansed Paradise Earth, where Our Creator will have restored mankind back to the wonderful conditions our ancestors Adam and Eve lost for us (Genesis 1:24-31 and 3:1-24) . There sickness, sorrow, and death will have been eradicated (Psalms 37:9-11, Isaiah 33:23, Rev. 21:3-4). Until that joyous day, when all who love him can wrap your arms around him again, may you grieve a little easier, because God always keeps His promises! Mrs. D.
