

Warren Ralph Miller

July 29, 1936 - March 5, 2024

On Tuesday, March 5, 2024, the Angel of the Lord came down and said to WARREN RALPH MILLER, SR. “Come unto Me, lay down your head and rest; lay down, thou weary one, lay down,” and Warren aka “Big Daddy” departed this life and found a resting place with his Lord and Savior.

Born to the late Richard Miller and Dora Williams on July 29, 1936 , Warren was raised in a loving and hard working family along with his late sisters and brother. Warren received his formal education from the Anne Arundel County Public School System, beginning at Marley Neck Elementary and graduating from Bates High School in Annapolis. After graduation, he was employed at the Farmers’ Market until he joined Harvest & Walker Masonry Manufacturing Company, where he was employed until his retirement.

He met Betty Robinson and raised a blended family of one girl and six boys. Warren loved his family and raised his sons to be hard working. He loved to cookout and would take over the grill when the opportunity presented itself. One of his favorite dishes to make was fried hard carbs and gravy. He enjoyed his family, friends and had a passion for cooking.

Later in life, he would sit at the kitchen table, watching sports, especially baseball, and always had a word of wisdom. He doted on his grandchildren when they came to visit and would often tell them stories.

During his illness, he was appreciative of the care his family gave him. Even until his last breath, he waited to see his children to let them know, they would be alright.

Warren is preceded in death by Betty, his wife, son, Maurice and siblings, Martha, Dora, Helen, Sadie and Bernard.

Warren, "Big Daddy" leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Angie; sons, Dale, Terry, Warren Jr., Rodney, and Brian; grandchildren, Trey, Veyon, Chantel, Maurice, Jr., LaBrin, Zykeya, Azyah, Delena, Zykai; one greatgrandchild, Zania; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
