

Warren J. Mitchell

December 25, 1987 - July 3, 2010

WARREN JAMAL MITCHELL, affectionately known as “ Denza” was born in Nassau County, New York on December 25, 1986 to Deborah Mitchell and Denzil Lobban (New York). On July 3, 2010 he departed this life to enter into eternal rest with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

In 1988, he and his family moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Warren received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Denza received his high school diploma and later went to attend Frederick Community College where he received a certificate in Basic Welding.

At an early age, Denza religious training began at Mount Zion Church of God in Christ.

Denza loved to play basketball. He was a member of the basketball team while at Patterson High School. He also loved to cook everything from pasta to desserts. During the holiday he would always make a cheese cake which was one of his many favorites.

Denza was employed at Applebee's Restaurant as a cook, while living in New York.

Denza would always add laughter and joy to any situation. His hospitality, generosity and loving spirit will be everlasting memories held by all who knew him. He will be sincerely missed.

He leaves to celebrate his life and mourn his passing; his parents, Deborah Mitchell and Denzil Lobban

(New York); three sisters, Juwana Mitchell, Yukia Powell and Geezle Lobban

(New York); brother, Dylan Lobban (New York); niece, Deaja Green; maternal grandparents, Rosa Mitchell (the late John Henry Mitchell preceded him in death); paternal grandparents, Lorenzo Lobban and Lucille Chaney (New York); a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and many friends, including a very special friend Roynika Royster.

“ I want to extend my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr, Mitchell. When we loose a loved one in death it is hard to comprehend. The bible inspired by God helps us to cope with such a loss. It so reassuring that one day soon by means fo God's kingdom we will see our loved ones again. Job 14: 14,15 says, "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning."

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
