

Warren L. Scott

June 15, 1944 - November 7, 2020

Warren Leroy Scott, son of the late Claude L. and Marie A. (Tate) Scott, was born on June 15, 1944 and raised on Division Street in West Baltimore. He departed this life on November 7, 2020 after a short illness.

He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. After leaving school Warren worked various jobs before employment at Crown Cork and Seal Co Inc. Baltimore as a machinist, where he worked for several years.

Warren was affectionately known to his friends as “Warren Lee”, of which he had many. Warren enjoyed playing pinochle. Getting together with a group of his friends for a night out playing pinochle was truly one of his greatest joys.

He had a great love of food, with sweets being his favorite. Warren was a soft-spoken man but was very vocal at seeing his favorite teams as he was an avid sports fan, loving boxing, football, and baseball. Reading the daily newspaper was a MUST, followed by watching CNN. It kept him current with the world and provided him with subjects for conversations.

Warren leaves to mourn: two sons Quentin Scott Sr. (Rhonda) Baltimore MD and Christian Scott Sr. (Jennifer) Lake Wylie SC, one daughter Nicole Lindsey, Atlanta GA. Six grandchildren, Sierra Richardson Baltimore MD, India Dupont Atlanta GA, Quentin Scott Jr. and Reon Scott Baltimore MD and Christian Scott Jr. and Jona Scott Lake Wylie SC, his two brothers Claude Scott, Jr. Baltimore MD and Donald Scott (Carolyn), Kansas City Missouri, his four sisters Carolyn Ames (Arthur), Odenton MD, Stacia Pate (Phillip) Eldersburg MD, Shelley Scott, Baltimore MD and Michelle Samuels (Stephen) Baltimore MD, Sandra Ann (Hayes) Scott Baltimore MD, his former wife and his many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Warren is predeceased by his sister Gina Robinson and his brother Steven Scott, Sr., and special friend Thelma Ellison and life-long friend Colleen B. Braddy Chavis.
