

Washington Frazier Jr.

January 29, 1933 - June 13, 2015

George Washington Frazier, Jr. son of the late George and Mabel Frazier was born on January 29, 1933 in Hopewell, Virginia. He departed this life on June 13, 2015.

George was affectionately known to his friends as "Washington" and to his family as "Junior". He was educated in Baltimore City Schools graduating from Carver Vocational High School. Junior served in the United States Army serving time in Germany. Upon his return from his Germany tour, he married Anna Leggett. Out of this union three children were born; Jackie, Cynthia, and Ricky (who preceded Junior in death).

Junior was employed by the General Refractory Company and Sparrows Point. One of his hobbies was working as a mechanic. He could fix anything. In his early years, he enjoyed playing the guitar and always loved to travel. To most he would have been known as the "Great debater". He spoke his mind, an independent thinker who was never afraid to expose his ideas to the dangers of controversy. These traits were of most importance and noteworthy in Junior's commitment to God. He had fully submitted to Christ as being Lord of his life without wavering at a very young age. He loved God with his whole heart, soul and mind and made it the overarching topic of almost every conversation. He stood boldly and fearlessly against anything or anyone that challenged his beliefs, ready at all times to defend his faith. He was a true man of God in words and deeds, standing steadfastly and willing to be counted at any cost.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters Jackie Whitehead and Cynthia Fitchett; two brothers, Sylvester Frazier and Joseph Frazier; two sisters, Mable Couser and Virginia Frazier; five grandchildren, Tameka Alexandre, Scott Fitchett, Ricky Fitchett, Nikita Daniels and Cinquetta Frazier; seven great grandchildren, Christina Daniels, Christian Daniels, Eva Daniels, Ava Daniels, Antonio Fitchett, Mehkarl Alexandre, Mila Fitchett, and a host of other devoted relatives and friends.
