“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We as Jehovah's Witnesses understand your anguish over the loss of a dear loved one. That is why we eagerly desire to bring you hope from God's word the bible. we trust in God's truth, one reason is because the bible gives us fine examples of His promises. We find at Revelation 21:4, God promises to wipe the tears from our eyes for death will be no more nor outcry, or pain, there will be joy because of the resurrection. Continue to have faith and continue to pray to the God of truth, In the name of Jesus, Amen

“ I did not know your loved one, but I too have experience losing someone in death that I loved very deeply, what has helped me was the comforting thought found in Jehovah God's word the Bible at 1 Corinthians 1:3,4. Take comfort in knowing that Jehovah knows your pain and He can help you get through this difficult time. My thoughts are with your family.
