

Wayde A. Jones

May 12, 1959 - March 18, 2006

WAYDE A. JONES, son of the late Anthony Andrews II and Shirley Mae Jones, was born May 12, 1959. Wayde received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He graduated from Patterson High School in 1977. After high school Wayde held several jobs in electronics and home improvements before his disability, the last place of employment being Lock Insulators. In 1980 he met the love of his life, Kemma Oreta Walker. They married on May 18, 1985. Wayde loved to cook, especially on the grill. Wayde really loved his family. He was always concerned about how they were doing and keeping in touch. He loved to joke and just have a good time with his family and loved ones. Wayde was baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost at Solid Rock Apostolic Faith Church, where he began his journey with the Lord. He enjoyed going to church, especially fellowshipping with his brothers and sisters in Christ. Two of his favorite songs were, "I Need An Angel" and "Let It Rain." He leaves to mourn: his wife, Kemma Jones (Kim); two sons, Wayde Anthony Jr. and Quinton; daughter, Brenna (Brandy) Williams; son-in-law, Kowon Williams Sr.; five grandchildren, Kimberly and Kiara Jones, Kowon Jr., Briona and Bria Williams; one sister, Linda Jones-Bond (Tina); four brothers, Anthony Jones III, Derrick Jones, Lance Jones and Troy Jones; two brothers-in-law, Hayward Gamble and Thomas Bond; six sisters-in-law, Darlinda Gamble, Hazel Gamble, Diane Gamble, Charlotte Gamble, Valerie Jones and Francesca Jones; mother-in-law, Betty Gamble; two uncles, Norman Carvens and Lee Jones; special friend, James Atkinson; one aunt, Bea Jones; and a host of family and friends.

“ Hello ! Jones ! May I send my deep sympathy to u all. Knowing that others care help so much to heal. I have lost ones in death before and truely know the feeling and pain. Hope in the bible is what helped me through that time in my life. May the comfort from our creator help and renew your spirits. Mr. Wayde enjoyed doing so many things in life. The time is comming when we will be able to do all of things we would like to do too, as Ps.145:16 says, please read. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##L.C##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ So very sorry to read of the death of your loved one. Unfortunately at present, we all have to experience the pain of losing someone we love. No matter how many times it happens, we can never get used to the pain. Almighty God knows the depth of our grief, so he made it possible for us to see our loved ones again in a new paradise earth where death will be no more. Psalm 37: 29 tells us, "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." At that time Isaiah 25:8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever. PLease keep these promises close to your heart as we await that glorious day to come.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##
