

Waymond Washington

December 23, 1943 - December 2, 2006

On Saturday, December 2, 2006 at around 2:30 a.m., death swiftly invaded our family and removed a precious link from our family chain, WAYMOND J. WASHINGTON. Waymond was born on December 23, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Isabelle Galvin and Joseph Washington. Waymond received his education in the Baltimore Public school System. He was also a part of the "Helping Hand Ministry" where he received several awards. He also worked there as a Meat Cutter. "Uncle Waymond" was what he was called by all of his nieces and nephews. He was so very special to us. "Neckbone" was what he was called by all of his friends in the Dolfield Community. "What's up Babe." No matter who you were, he would refer to you as his niece or nephew. Neckbone was "one of a kind" and no one could ever take his place. He will know be reunited with his sisters, the late Vernell Gaskins and Gloria Jackson, and his brother, the late Delbert Jackson. Waymond leaves to mourn: one brother, Alphonso Jackson; two nieces, Shelwyn and Valerie Gaskins; five nephews, Durant and Camillus Gaskins, Rodney and Alphonso Jackson, Jr. and James McRae; eight great-nieces, Sherron, Shermaine, Angela, Tiara, Ivy, Camilla, Taila (Jaz) and Tiala (Breeze); three great-nephews, Durrell Wayne and Marquis; two great-great-nieces, Jayda and Alexis; three great-great-nephews, Kenneth (KJ), Trey and Jamel; and one brother-in-law, Joseph Gaskins. Among others, he leaves (but not limited to), Marvin Brooks, Renea Gaskins, Tijuana Clayton, Gilda Gaskins, a very devoted friend, "Larry," and a host of other family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. In our quiet times, it's helpful to think about the wonderful Christian hope of the resurrection that our Almighty God, Jehovah, puts in front of us. Jesus promised at John 5:28,29:"Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming when those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out"###imported-begin##A. Robinson###imported-end##
