

Wayne D. Shorts

January 5, 1993 - January 14, 2003

Wayne Darnell Shorts Jr. was born on January 5, 1993 to Priscilla Jones and Wayne Shorts. Wane was affectionately known as Little Wayne by family and friends. He departed this life on Tuesday, January 14, 2003, after suffering a fatal seizure. Little Wayne was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was a gifted child, but when he sang he had a voice of an angel. "Songbird", was what his mother called him. Little Wayne loved to sing gospel music, his favorite song was, " His Eyes on the Sparrow". He studied and was leaning to play the keyboard. He loved the Lord, and he loved to read his Bible. He attended church at Shekinah Glory. Little Wayne was always, always well mannered and always had a smile, he touched everyone that knew him, and DEARLY loved his mother. He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Priscilla Jones; father, Wayne Shorts; brothers, Devante, Gregory; sisters, Chavonne, Chrisshauna, one other sister and four other brothers, grandmothers, Leslie Harris and Nettie Smith; godmother, Edna Davis; godfather, Gregory Green; aunts, Roberta, Tonya, Stacy, Tammy, Celeste, and Athena; uncles; Nate, Pete, George, Jamal, John, Anthony and Darren; great-aunts; Lydia, Nettie and Janeen, and a host of other relatives and friends. Little Wayne's life was a blessing, and his memory will be cherished and loved by all that knew him.

“ I am the vice youth president at the faith deliverance apostolic church and it grieves my heart when young people die but I just want to let the parents of W. Shorts know that his living was not in vain because when God says that it is over then it is over and I want you to know that weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. Be encouraged and lift up your head o ye gates and be lifted up ye everlasting doors and the king of glory shall come in. May God bless and keep you is always my prayer.##imported-begin##Kagesta Cupid##imported-end##
