

Wayne Delandio Green

July 3, 1960 - June 22, 2024

Wayne Delandio Green was born in Baltimore, MD to the late John Edward Green and Donnie Lee Green.

Wayne attended Baltimore City Public Schools.

He became CDL Driver following in the footsteps of his Father. Wayne enjoyed driving and often chauffeured the family from state to state. He had a unique and loving sense of humor and someday would be a divine leader according to Wayne.

Wayne enjoyed a challenge and was always in the middle of a heated discussion.

He was multi-skilled in a variety of areas, if help was needed everyone knew to call Wayne the "Handy Man."

He was a loving son and caretaker for his mother upon the passing of his father. Wayne was a dutiful father Uncle, Brother, Cousin, Nephew, grandfather, and friend.

Wayne was preceded in death by his father John Green, brothers Rickey and Dexter Green, his sister Elisa White, and uncles Robert and Willie Green.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his children, NaKisha, Tiffeny, La'Terra, Whitney, Wayne Delandio Jr.; grandchildren, Ashley, Stephan, Morgan, Kayleb, Aamir & A'mari, Dimitri, Chayla, A'jae; great-grandchildren, Nekai and Aziya; friend, Mary Arrington; and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm a DETROIT, resident and family member, who was unable to make the FUNERAL. I am so disappointed that I was not able to see the LIVE broadcast. I turned on the video at 11a.m, but it never showed anything. I rebooted 5 times. This is so unprofessional, I hope the family didn't PAY for this service. GET IT TOGETHER. You must be collecting to MUCH money and didn't check your equipment.
