

Wayne M. Wright

March 19, 1956 - January 26, 2007

Wayne Wright was born on March 19, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Matthew Wright and Dorothy Washington. He departed this life on January 21, 2007, after a short illness. Wayne was the only child. "Butch," as he was called by family and friends, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Butch knew and received Christ at an early age. He was a kind-hearted person and would make you smile even if you didn't want to by cracking jokes and dancing crazy. Butch had many talents and could fix just about anything. He was a devoted employee of AMI Services until his health failed. Butch taught us as a family, family is important and to try to stick together. He will be deeply missed. Butch leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Tecorecilla Gale and Nadine Gale; three grandchildren; two aunts, Virginia Minor and Marie Morris; a loving and devoted fiancée', Sharon Barnett; one special and long-time friend, Charles Campbell (Chuckie); and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives us much hope for our loved ones who have been taken by enemy death. (See First Corinthians 15:26) Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." One example of a resurrection was when Jesus Christ brought back Lazarus from the dead even though he had been dead for four days. (See John 11:1, 21-44) That was recorded to give us comfort. Jesus performed those resurrections as a preview of what he will do in the near future. When he does this again the earth will be like new with the prospect of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Isaiah 65:17, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) It is my hope that you and your family will receive much comfort and strength as you think on these loving promises from the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
