“ To my brother in law. You will be truly missed. God needed a good soldier. We love you and will miss you. You were just not my employee you were brother in law. Who would have thought that when I invited you over to my mom's house for Thanksgiving that you were going to leave with my sister and y'all started dating. I don't know if you ever ate because all y'all was doing was talking. We welcome you to our family. You were special. From Diane Wallace Sister.
