

Wayne Dornell Lee Thompson

June 18, 1977 - June 2, 2025

“For He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the Kingdom of the Son He loves.”

– Colossians 1:13

Our beloved, Wayne Dornell Lee Thompson was born on June 18, 1977, to Cynthia Thompson and the late Tillman Thompson, Sr. in Richmond, Virginia.

Wayne attended Varina High School and later proudly earned his General Educational Development (GED) diploma. He was formerly employed as a forklift driver at Alfa Laval Richmond Manufacturing, where he took great pride in his work and valued the friendships he built with his coworkers.

Known for his bright spirit and generous heart, Wayne had a way of lighting up any room he entered. He was a loyal friend to many—the kind of person who would give you the shirt off his back without hesitation. His presence was powerful, his words carried weight, and his confidence was unshakable. Wayne was deeply loved, and his conversations, laughter, and support will be missed by all who knew him.

Wayne was affectionately known as “B/Naked,” a nickname that brings smiles and memories to those closest to him. He leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and authenticity that will be cherished forever.

He was preceded in death by his father, Tillman Thompson Sr.; brother, Tillman Thompson Jr.; grandmother, Rosetta Dabney; and grandfather, Walter Ampey.

Wayne leaves to celebrate his life: his devoted mother, Cynthia Thompson; his beloved daughter, Tillia Thompson; Neesha Thompson and Trevon Thompson; sister-in-law, Kristell Brown; special friend, Chawan Pollard; nephew, Ben Pollard; aunt, Merle Hill; uncles, Wayne, Walter, and Keith Ampey; and cousins, Michael Hill and Tony Brown and a long time extended family friend, Delores Fleming; and a host of dear friends who truly loved and admired him.

Wayne was called home to be with the Lord on June 2, 2025. Though his earthly journey has ended, his memory will live on in every life he touched. Sleep well, Wayne. You are truly missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.

“ Wayne, all though I wasnt able to know you long the time you have been in my life has been a great gift to me, I will never forget how you made me see myself for the person I am and not what others thought of me. I will never forget meeting you down at the river and you was just shook at how out going and down to earth I was said it wasn't many of us left out there. Now God has taken you home, to soon my brother to soon.. I regret not being able to see you or able to attend your service you passed while I was locked up. I love you Wayne, my you rest easy honey. 🙏
