

Webster Malone

April 15, 1919 - November 25, 2004

Webster Malone was born on April 15, 1919 in Denwiddie, Virginia, the son of the late Buck Malone and Leslie Tucker. He departed this life on November 25, 2004. He was reared in Virginia with family with family experiences as a unique brother among several siblings of which three preceded him in death. Webster had a quiet nature and enjoyed listening to the Gospel Music-sharing his light by God's design. Webster served in the United States Army with a good character until he was honorably discharged by reason of disability in 1943. His journey has taken him from the care of his loving cousins, William and Laura Edmund in Virginia to Baltimore, Maryland; where his devoted sister, the late Elizabeth Reed cared for him. After her passing, his care was provided by her godson and wife, Aaron and Pensie Holman. Extended family and friends were a blessing to his care. Though limited verbally, those who knew "Uncle Webster" well knew the things he enjoyed and what made him happy. "Uncle Webster's" favorite foods were chicken, fish, crab cakes and of course desserts. He liked to have his table place set before he would eat. While not being very sociable verbally, he did enjoy being in the midst of social settings; especially on holidays and family gatherings. Webster loved a good shave and watching television. When walking, he would gently pull away (a show of his sense of independence). He will be missed. Precious memories remain with: sisters, Carrie Hamlet and Pattie Clerk of Flint, Michigan, Ruth Harris of Ford, Virginia and Emma Evans of Petersburg, Virginia; brothers, Robert Malone of Florida, Archer Malone of Richmond, Virginia; aunts, Julia White of Maryland and Alice Stevens of Washington, D.C.; a host of nieces and nephews; a very devoted and loving extended family of Aaron and Pensie Holman and children of the home, AJ and Baby August, Norman and Frances Holman, Eliza McKoy, Helen Harris and Albert Johnson all of Maryland.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy is with your family and friends on the loss you share and I know that there are no words of sympathy that can ease the loss you bear, may you find some comfort in whats stated in Gods Word at Isaiah 25:8. May beautiful memories of a life lived to its fullest linger. May the pain you feel now be lessened each passing day,as you find comfort in precious memories.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. Unfortunately, at some time or the other, we all have to deal with the grief caused by death. However, "the God of all Comfort" has promised to "comfort us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. May you draw strength from this promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
