“ *He never looks for praises
He's never one to boast
He just goes on quietly working
For those he loves the most
His dreams are seldom spoken
His wants are very few
And most of the time his worries
Will go unspoken too
He's there.... A firm foundation
Through all our storms of life
A sturdy hand to hold to
In times of stress and strife
A true friend we can turn to
When times are good or bad
One of our greatest blessings,
The man that I called Dad.*

“ My Dearest Webbie,

*I am not as strong as I thought I was Since you have been gone
I sit and cry all night long to dusk to dawn.*

*Another day comes and once again
I have to pretend that I am strong
As soon as the day is over
I can go home and quit pretending that I am strong*

*I sit and cry all night long
My Dearest Darling because of you are gone and now that I am home
I don't have to pretend to be strong!*

Until we meet again, I love you Carolyn

“ My granddad was a very joyful, spiritual, and loving person. He didn't care what you did as long as you were doing the right thing, and doing the right thing as best as you could. He was a very wise man. He could give you the best advice, and it could be advice that would someday help you overcome some problem in your life.

There are many things I remember about my grandfather, one of the most memorable of which was when he and my two cousins drove up from Baltimore, and spent the day with us. We went to the movies, the mall, the store, an ice cream parlor, and finally back home.

It's the memories like these that will spring to mind when I think of my GrandFather.

Love,

Your grandson,

“ Dear Webster,

It has truly been my honor the the twenty years to be your son-in-law. The day I met you I knew and asked you for Theresa's hand in marriage I was impressed with your kindness. I believe that Gods' grace and mercy are eternal and his light will shine on you forever. Thank you for the blessing to have known you.

“ Dear Granddaddy,

*My memories of you are rich and full of life.
Perhaps my earliest memory is being bounced on your knee while you sung me a song.
I have other memories of Christmas and New Years. Others still of car rides around town and birthdays.
Things to remind me of you.... Birthday cards and pictures. But I'd say the most meaningful gift is the piano you got me. Everytime I play it, it will remind of you Granddad.
Things I wish you could see me do in person. Like graduating from high school in June, and my fast approaching college years.
I'm confident that you'll always be looking over me and guiding me.
Even though you're gone, I'll always remember Webster E. Zantt, my grandfather, the only grandparent I had the pleasure of meeting.*

“ A Prayer For Dad

*Lord, Shepherd my Dad today
In green pastures let him lay
To still waters guide his way
Restoreth his soul, I pray*

*Lead him in the paths of right
Throught the valley give him light
When he's afraid ease his fright
With thy rod and staff lend might*

*Prepare a table of spoil
Annointest his head with oil
Give to him a cup that's royal
Let goodness foolow his toil*

*And thy mercy cease never May he dwell in thy house forever
This I ask in Jesus' name. Amen*

*Love Your Daughter
Theresa*

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
