

Wendell Jefferson Rogers

June 19, 1962 - November 26, 2018

Wendell Jefferson Rogers, son of Louise Rodgers and the late Junious Rodgers, was born on June on June 19, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. Wendell departed this life on Monday, November 26, 2018.

Wendell received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Northern High School in 1979 and entered into the United States Marine Corps immediately after graduation. After receiving an honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps Camp LeJune, Wendell returned home to begin a career with the City of Baltimore Bulk Trash Collection as a clerk. He worked several years which the city until a traumatic injury prevented him from continuing to do so.

Wendell accepted Christ at an early age and demonstrated his commitment to Christ. He was a faithful Sunday School participant and was always willing to lend a helping hand. Wendell had a lovable, kind and caring spirit that was always felt with his presence and he took great pride and honored being his mother's "Personal Uber".

Wendell leaves to mourn and to cherish his memory: his mother Louise Rodgers; and two brothers, Bernard Sullivan (Gail) and James Sullivan (Gwendolyn). Three brothers preceded him in death, Larry Cooper (Barbara), Ulycess Sullivan (Denise) and Derrick Sullivan (Patricia). He also leaves: two best friends, William Collins and Ed Randall; god-sister, Cheryl (Earl); aunts, uncles, nephews, cousins, and a host of grinds from his church and community.

“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal...love leaves a memory no one can steal. Wendell was a very good neighbor who always went above his neighborly duties to cut our grass, invitations to cookouts, or just hanging on the front porch.

“ Windell is a true gentleman. His mannerism taught to him by his wonderful mother, shows great respect to all he come in contact with. I love and will certainly miss Windell. My true neighbor.

They'll be peace in the valley Windell.

From your neighbors,💖 Mr. Lynn and Ms. Pepsi
