

Wendell Simon

April 1, 1959 - March 11, 2018

WENDELL “FRUIT” SIMON, son of the late Paul and Dolly Mae Simon, was born on April 1, 1959 in Columbus, South Carolina. He departed this life on March 11, 2018.

Wendell, affectionately known as “Fruit” or Fruit bowl, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from City College High School in June of 1978.

Fruit received Christ at an early age but later converted to Islam and remained until his passing.

Fruit enjoyed many things such as dancing, drawing, singing, hanging with family and friends, laughing, joking, animals but most of all cooking!!!. Anytime the weather was nice or just because, you could be sure to see Fruit with his grill and truck in neighborhood! In the words of Fruit “NO PORK ON THIS FORK”

Fruit leaves to cherish his memory: his sister Paulette Suell brother-in-law, Mike Suell three nephews, Shawn “Feet” Thomas, Laquan Suell and Joseph Ashby; two children Antonio “Tony” Smith Danisha “Mutt” Batchelor; eight grandchildren; longtime friend, Eunice Carroll; two aunts Mary Robinson and Willabee Taylor; uncle, Charles Draft (Dorothy) from Lexington, South Carolina, a host of other family and friends.
